This seminar is an excellent opportunity for crop agents to learn what is around the corner for the 2010 crop year in preparation for advising your farmer clients this spring. It also allows those that actually deliver the insurance product the opportunity to share the concerns that they see out in the field with RMA. Doug Hagel, director of the Billings RO and Kathy Gilbertson, Senior Specialist will lead these seminars. They will review regional procedural issues, program expansion, filing updates in the region, and claim-related issues that impact crop insurance agents. They will also present an overview of the 2010 crop year programs. Don't Miss Out!
